A Plea for Good Logic.

The great cases which form epochs in the legal and constitutional history of a free state, rarely are appreciated in their full importance at the outset, even by the people then most interested. Some individual's rights invaded or withheld, and seeks redress through the ordinary channels of justice. In the sharp conflict of the Courts, the foundation of his right becomes the subject of careful scrutiny; the sources of his remedy are traced to their fountain-head; far-seeing minds look into the most recondite principles of government, and find their relations to the actual issue; and thus the question which at first was simply a matter of personal interest, becomes in its final decision the rule of right to a whole nation. An illiterate negro seeks to be free from a cruel master, and the result is that noble judgment which blessed England and the whole world in Sherman's case.

In the land of written constitutions, all founded on the same general model, we can hardly yet tell how many grave doubts lie concealed under their seemingly simple clauses. Every few years, in most of the states, a body of respectable gentlemen get together and make a new constitution out of shreds and patches culled from the old and from all of those of their neighbors. It reads well, works well, and seems to bear up the whole frame-work of society for years. Not till touched by the Ithuriel-spear of some actual controversy, does the weak spot which has escaped the eyes of theorizing students, show itself.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

EP The Republican meeting last evening at the Representatives' Chamber in the State House was very fully attended.—Benj. Marsh, Esq., presided, and G. T. Hammond acted as Secretary. Dr. R. R. Hazard, Jr., read a statement in vindication of the course pursued by the Republican State Committee in relation to the question of union with the American Republican organization.

EP Mr. Peckham, Jr., then addressed the meeting in a highly finished and eloquent speech, introducing Hon. Thomas Davis, who spoke more than an hour, holding the closest attention of the audience throughout by his able and frank discussion of the questions presented on the approaching election. These were followed by a short but enthusiastic address from Mr. Smith of Massachusetts, after which the meeting adjourned.

EP Whatever else Newport may lack, she can certainly boast of a most magnificent Band of Music—a fife and snare drum. She has沉没ed down to this quintessence of musical excellence, by a long and systematic course of experiments, consisting principally of frowning down every effort to multiply the number of instruments, and sending abroad for a band when one was wanted, instead of patronizing their own when they had one. We expect the next advance will be in the direction of a burdy-gurdy, and that a gigantic whang-doodle will finally cap the climax of perfection.

P. S. We perceive, since the above was in type, that the Band has received the important addition of a big bass drum; (we were not aware before that there was such a thing in town.)

THE ARTILLERY PARADE.—The New-port Artillery Company, Col. Chas. W. Turner commanding, paraded yesterday, in full ranks. They numbered 40 men, and made a very creditable appearance as they passed through Thames Street. They were led by "the same old fife and drum," with the addition, this time, of the big bass.—That he and two drums, though, were "some pumpkins" in the way of music, and were handled by men who evidently "knew how."

At 12 o'clock they fired a national salute with their brass pieces, after which they passed the remainder of the day in parade, exercise, &c., and did not give a "grand ball" in the evening. This Artillery Company is one of the institutions of Newport.

FRESHET IN THE RIVER.—There was a freshet in Nuisance River, (the locality of which we have so many times pointed out) yesterday morning. We heard Monday that the Street Commissioner had contracted with Mr. David Melville to run his steamship across there, and that she will be put on the 1st of April. Meanwhile people are continually slipping and falling on the ice at this point, and the City is incurring heavy risks, daily, of having damages to pay for broken limbs.

EP The anniversary of Washington's birth day (yesterday) passed off in this city pretty much as any other day, with the exception of the parade of the Artillery Company, and the display of flags by the shipping in port, which latter gave to the harbor quite a gala day appearance.

EP Mr. Tourjee's Old Folks' Concert will take place at Aquidneck Hall Thursday evening, March 3d.

COURT RECORD.

The Spring term of the R. I. Supreme Court for this County commenced in this town on Monday. No quorum of Judges being present it was adjourned by the Clerk until yesterday when Chief Justice Ames and Justice Brayton took their seats.

The grand jury having been impanelled with Mr. Thomas B. Bush as foreman were charged by Ch. J. Ames. We understand that low cases, and none of an aggravated nature will come before them.

The docket was then called and all cases ready were marked for trial. The Court announced that to suit the convenience of those members of the bar who were in attendance at Providence as Members of the Legislature, an adjourned session for jury trials would be held in this town on the fourth Tuesday in March, to which time nearly all the cases marked for trial were continued. The petit jurors were then dismissed until 9 A. M. to-day. Wednesday, when the first case taken up will be James M. Ifall, et al. vs. David P. Hall. The case of John Rodgers vs. Philip Gray was referred by consent to Justice Brayton.

William G. Hammond, Esq., of Newport, (late of New York, and a Counsellor of the Supreme Courts of that State and of the United States) was on motion of George Turner, Esq., admitted to practice as an Attorney and Counsellor of this Court.

Ch. Justice Ames delivered the opinion on appeal in the case of William Gill vs. Thomas Read, granting a new trial before the Common Pleas at its April term in this County. Also the opinion of the Court in the case of Thomas Spooner vs. Abner M. Leland et al., dismissing the bill with costs.

A nolle prosequi was entered in the case of the State vs. Borney McGinneth, and the prisoner discharged.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Justice Bosworth arrived and took his seat during the afternoon session. The Equity Docket was called through, but no cause found ready for trial.

The Grand Jury brought in bills of indictment against—

John F. Young, for entering shop of Job F. Stanton in night-time and stealing therefrom.

George E. Reed for receiving stolen money.

Patrick Reynolds, for assault with intent to kill.

All of whom pleaded not guilty; trials postponed to the adjourned term. The Court then adjourned till 9 o'clock this morning.

NEW HOSE COUPLING.—We examined on Saturday last, a new hose coupling, manufactured by Messrs. Bliss & Lawton, of Newport, which, in its simplicity of construction and operation, as well as complete adaptability to the purpose for which it is intended, excels anything which we have ever before seen. It was tested at the works of Messrs. Cleaveland & Brother, before the Chief Engineer and others, to such entire satisfaction as to call forth the following certificate:

PROVIDENCE, February 18th, 1859.
This is to certify that by invitation of Messrs. Bliss & Lawton, we attended to-day a public exhibition of the new Hose Coupling, invented by them, it being attached to a rotary steam pump, and with entire confidence we recommend it to the fire department of the United States as an article that was wanted, instead of patronizing their own when they had one. We expect the next advance will be in the direction of a burdy-gurdy, and that a gigantic whang-doodle will finally cap the climax of perfection.

P. S. We perceive, since the above was in type, that the Band has received the important addition of a big bass drum; (we were not aware before that there was such a thing in town.)

XXXVTH CONGRESS.

SECOND SESSION.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.

In the Senate, to-day, the resolution to hold evening sessions was repealed. A report was presented relative to the Old Soldiers' Pension bill. The Diplomatic Appropriation bill was taken up, and Mr. Pugh's amendment, to consolidate the smaller Missions, was agreed to. Mr. Simons moved and carried an amendment restricting the rate of exchange on Ministers' salaries to 10 per cent. For the China Mission, it had been as high as 42 per cent. The vote, however, was reconsidered. Mr. Fessenden got in an amendment limiting Consular certificates of payment on the Canada line to 50 cents, and to nothing where the value of goods is under $200. After much talk about economy, the bill was passed.

In the House, a resolution was adopted, declaring all extra copies of books and documents divided equally among members, are intended for gratuitous distribution to libraries, and among the people, and that any other disposition of the same meets the unqualified disapprobation of the House. The Army bill was taken up in Committee. Mr. Bryan of Texas wanted to put in $1,000,000 to pay a Texas regiment for fighting Indians, but failed. Several amendments were voted upon, but no definite action was taken on the bill.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

MONDAY, Feb. 21.

Senate.

The Senate did not sit to-day.

House of Representatives.

The Speaker laid before the House a communication from the Rhode Island Temperance Society, inviting the members to attend its annual meeting to be held in this city the present week; which was read, and on motion of Mr. D. Clark of Cumberland, the invitation was accepted.

Mr. D. Clark of Cumberland, in pursuance of previous notice, introduced a bill amending the chapter of the Revised Statutes in relation to the killing and selling of certain kinds of birds; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. Jencks of Foster introduced a resolution declaring that when the Assembly adjourns on the 4th of March, it will adjourn to meet according to law; which was not adopted.

Mr. Smith of Cumberland submitted a resolution fixing Tuesday at eleven o'clock as the time for taking the question upon the resolution reversing and annulling the decree of the Supreme Court in the Ives and Hazard case.

After some discussion, the resolution was withdrawn.

On motion of Mr. Hayes of Providence, the House voted to sit afterwards during the remainder of the session.

Mr. Hayes, from Providence, pursuant to previous notice, introduced an amendment to the chapter of the Revised Statutes in relation to foreign attachments; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. Ballou, from the Committee on Corporations, made an adverse report on the petition of the Newport Gas Light Company for amendment of charter. The report was adopted, and the petitioners had leave to withdraw.

Mr. Hayes, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported back the annual report of the Washington Bridge Company, which was ordered to be communicated to the Senate.

Mr. Sanford, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported an act in amendment to the chapter of the Revised Statutes relating to holidays, by striking out the first day of January as a legal holiday, and adding to the number the 22d day of February.

After a long discussion, the bill was, on motion of Mr. Hubbard of Gloucester, laid upon the table.

On motion of Mr. D. Clarke of Cumberland, the House then passed to the consideration of the following resolution, which was under discussion at the hour of adjournment on Friday :

Resolved, That in assuming equity jurisdiction in the case of R. and H. Ives vs. Charles T. Hazard, upon which a decree was issued by the Supreme Court at its September term, 1856, that said court exceeded the authority conferred upon it by the General Assembly, and that the equity proceedings in said case should be wholly amended, revoked and annulled, and the complainant left to seek his remedy before a court of common law, in conformity with the constitution and laws of this State.

Mr. Shiefford of Newport addressed the House at length in opposition to the resolution.

Adjourned.

CATHOLICISM IN THE UNITED STATES.

The Metropolitan Catholic Almanac, for 1859, states that in 1858 there were in the United States two bishops, sixty-four priests, and eighty churches, i. e. church edifices. Ten years later there were ten bishops, two hundred and thirty-two priests, and two hundred and thirty churches. At the close of the next decade there were seventeen bishops, four hundred and thirty-two priests, nine hundred and seven churches.

At the present time there are forty-five bishops, two thousand one hundred and eight priests, and two thousand three hundred and twenty-four churches. The compilers of the Almanac refrain from estimating the Catholic population of the United States, on account of the "intrinsic difficulties" which the subject presents; but an estimate of about eight hundred millioners to each church would give one million, eight hundred sixty-seven thousand and two hundred, as the Catholic population of the United States.

WHAT THE AMERICAN CHILDREN EAT.

A correspondent of the Poughkeepsie Daily Democrat states that while visiting a school in Montreal, he asked the teacher if there were any American children there. She said there were, and she could tell them by their pale faces, bright eyes and nervousness. They learned quicker, but lost so many days during the term, from sickness, that they did not get along so fast as those who were able to be present constantly. He also took occasion to examine their luncheon baskets, and found the Americans to be a piece of mince pie, the size of pound cake, two dough-nuts, a pickle and a cold sausage; while English, Irish and Scotch children had either two days' old bread and meat, bread and butter, or bread and apple with nothing else.

The Albany Atlas and Argus thus concludes an article in which it pays its attention to a New York sheet which is now undergoing a "rapid decline":

We are not in the habit of bestowing much attention upon the New York Herald. Its falsehood and folly of one day counteract the folly and falsehood of the preceding. One "dirty hand" wipes the other, and both remain as dirty as before. It has less influence upon public sentiment than any sheet published in the Union, and still less upon the actions of political organizations.

FRENCH LUNAR DROPS.

The only certain and safe remedy for females in all cases of Suppression or Irregularities, no matter from what cause; in all recent cases they are warranted to give relief. The drops are the result of an extensive practice, and not discovered by accident. To enquire their virtues would not add to their merit; we would only say, try them. They are invariably certain to regulate the female system, and can be taken without hazard. For consultation on all diseases incident to females, apply personally, or by letter, to
